DISASTER RECOVERY CENTERS OPENING IN BERRIEN AND WAYNE COUNTIES

EAST LANSING, MI -- Federal and State recovery officials have announced the opening of Disaster Recovery Centers in Berrien and Wayne counties to serve homeowners, renters and business people who have already called to register for assistance.

A Disaster Recovery Center in Dearborn Heights has been in operation from 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily since Wednesday, July 7. A second Wayne County center will open at noon on Monday, July 12 at the Detroit Airport, 11499 Conner Street and, thereafter, will be open Sunday through Friday from 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Saturdays from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

A Berrien County center will also open at noon on Monday, July 12 in the South County Building at 1205 N. Front Street in Niles and will be open thereafter from 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m., seven days a week.

“You are not required to visit a Disaster Recovery Center to get answers to your questions after you apply for disaster assistance. You can get further information by calling the FEMA Helpline, also at 1-800-621-FEMA (3362),” stated Federal Coordinating Officer Marianne C. Jackson.

State Coordinating Officer, F/Lt. Ralph J. Hobrat of the Michigan State Police Emergency Management Division, ~~there is~~ explained, “Other Disaster Recovery Centers will be opening soon, and you can visit whatever center is convenient regardless of where you live. Disaster experts at each center will be available to answer your questions about assistance, help you complete your U.S. Small Business Administration loan application and give you information about how to reduce future disaster damage.”

Recovery officials remind renters, homeowners and business owners who suffered damage or loss in the severe weather that occurred between May 20 and 24 to apply for assistance by calling toll-free, 1-800-621-FEMA (3362), or TTY 1-800-4562-7585 for those with hearing or speech impairment.

On March 1, 2003, FEMA became part of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security. FEMA's continuing mission within the new department is to lead the effort to prepare the nation for all hazards and effectively manage federal response and recovery efforts following any national incident. FEMA also initiates proactive mitigation activities, trains first responders, and manages Citizen Corps, the National Flood Insurance Program and the U.S. Fire Administration.
